

Terms and Conditions

1. Cancellation of the event by the organiser for safety reasons:

In the event of weather conditions deemed too dangerous, forest fires, geopolitical conflicts or if health reasons so require, or for any other reasons, the organiser reserves the right to cancel the event under the following conditions:

More than 120 hours before the start:

75 per cent of the entry fee will be refunded.

Less than 120 hours before the start:

50 per cent of the entry fee will be refunded.

Less than 24 hours before the start or during the event:

The entry fee will not be refunded.

2. Cancellation of the event by the organiser due to a lack of participants:

If the number of participants falls below 40 per cent of the event's maximum capacity (100), the organiser reserves the right to cancel the event no later than 72 hours before the start, subject to the following conditions:

More than 72 hours before the start:

80 per cent of the entry fee will be refunded.

3. Cancellation of registration by the participant:

Once the entry fee has been paid, it is neither refundable nor transferable.

However, participants may transfer their race number free of charge no later than 72 hours before the start. In this case, the organisation must be notified without fail.

Upon presentation of a valid medical certificate issued by a doctor practising in Switzerland, 75 per cent of the entry fee is refundable, provided the document is submitted to the organisers no later than 10 working days before the event.

4. Costs of search, repatriation or evacuation:

All costs incurred, whether by the organiser or otherwise, are to be borne by the participant. The organiser (JVJ Promotion) is under no obligation to arrange or organise the repatriation or evacuation of a participant.

5. Image rights:

By registering, the participant agrees that the organiser may publish and use images taken before, during and after the event for promotional purposes. They thereby assign their image rights without financial compensation.

5. Road Traffic Act :

Each participant rides on public roads and must therefore comply with the rules in force in the country they are travelling through and follow police instructions in the event of an accident, diversion, road closure, demonstration or roadworks. The 2x200 Ultra Challenge is a non-timed ride on a self-chosen route. The organiser (JVJ Promotion) is not obliged to ensure the safety of participants throughout the event.

6. Liability in the event of an accident :

Each participant takes part at their own risk and may under no circumstances hold the organiser (JVJ Promotion) liable for any material damage or personal injury to themselves or others. Each participant must hold accident and third-party liability insurance valid in the countries visited.

