

General terms and conditions

1. Cancellation/postponement of the event by the organiser :

In the event of weather conditions deemed too dangerous or if health reasons so require, the organiser reserves the right to cancel the event under the following conditions:

More than 2 hours before the start: the entry fee will be carried over to the next edition.

During the event: the entry fee will not be refunded.

2. Cancellation/refund of registration by the participant :

Once the registration is validated, the registration fee is not refundable.

However, a postponement to the following year or a refund is possible on request on presentation of a medical certificate attesting to the participant's inability to cycle.

The participant may also choose to hand his/her number free of charge at the latest 48 hours before the start.

3. Image rights :

By registering, the participant accepts that the organiser may distribute and exploit the images taken before, during and after the event for promotional purposes.

He/she thus gives up his/her image rights without any financial compensation.

4. Repatriation/evacuation costs :

The costs of repatriation or evacuation are to be borne by the participant.

The organiser (Big Smile Cycling) is not obliged to ensure or organise the repatriation or evacuation of a participant.

5. Loi sur la circulation routière :

Each participant is on an open road and must therefore comply with the rules in force and adapt to the instructions of the police in the event of an accident, diversion or road closure, festivities event or road works.

6. Liability in case of accident :

Each participant is responsible for his/her own actions and cannot hold the organiser (Big Smile Cycling) responsible for any damage to themselves or others.

Each participant must have accident and civil liability insurance valid in the countries visited.
